U. S. ARMY MOTOR CARS AND TRUCKS RUSTING AWAY IN FRANCE

Small section of one group of motor cars and trucks rusting in France.

A tremendous amount of United States army supplies, including motor cars and trucks, were sold to the French government some months ago. Large quantities, still unsold, stand exposed to the air, rusting away, while no effective steps are taken to dispose of or save them.

Renewed Mexican Outrages

BULLETIN

(INTERNATIONAL NEWS SERVICE) CALIF., Dec. 4.—The entire department was informed today by American Consul Boyle of Mexico City, of the third outrage against an American citizen in that place with the last few in connection with the arrest and fearful beating administered W. K. Milton, former American soldier, by a Mexican police officer, it was announced today.

Milton, 24, is in a serious condition. His removal to Letterman General Hospital, San Francisco, where his injuries can be given closer care, is expected as soon as his condition warrants moving him.

His jaw is broken, his hand shattered and his head and neck are fearfully cut and frightfully cut and bruised in a dozen places. As the result of the torture inflicted upon him, his vision is impaired to under 20-200 now.

The question of the release of Agent Tom O' Jenkins now occupies Agent Tom O' Jenkins now occupies a Mexican jail, does not have anything to do with either Senator Faile's resolution or that of Senator Austin E. Smith authorizing the use of additional troops to protect American citizens along the Mexican frontier.

The immediate release of Jenkins by Secretary of State Lanahan will, it is said, would not effect within the one or the other, and action upon both resolutions would be required in Congress, for the same time the request had not yet been received by the president.

It is believed here President Wilson must soon personally take a hand in the crisis with Mexico. As commander-in-chief of the American army and navy, only by his act could the use of either against a foreign country be authorized.

Owing to his illness, it is claimed by some the Mexican affair has not been mentioned to the president. Others indicate that the reverse of this story is true, and that the president knows all.
